7.	Input	An internal source reports that the Music & Arts Society has been conducting weekly music and art workshops every Wednesday evening since April 2025 at the Pinnacle Global Solutions recreation center. The workshops are led by Divya Nair (vocals), Arjun Nair (guitar and keyboard), and Nandini Rao (visual arts). Attendance has grown from 15 to over 40 participants per session. The workshops cover guitar basics, Indian classical vocals, digital art, and canvas painting. Meera Patel teaches a Bharatanatyam basics session once a month. Shruti Pandey and Tanvi Bhatt manage the workshop schedule. The source noted that the workshops have become a recruitment ground for the Cultural Fest team (ref: TMS-2025-0645). Several new talents have been discovered including Joseph Thomas from the Tech Innovation Lab who plays the violin, and Geeta Rawat from the Sports Club who is a trained Kathak dancer. The workshops also serve as practice sessions for the upcoming charity concert. Swati Deshpande is organizing a mini art exhibition to display workshop creations.
